Next Meeting:

Join us at Ken Rowe's shop in Durham CT on Tuesday, November 29th, 2022 at 6:30pm. The demo will be on ornaments and Christmas ornaments.

President's Note

Hello woodturners,

As a shy and bashful young child, I can remember sitting at the Thanksgiving dinner table-each of us being asked what they were thankful for. At the time, it was difficult for me. Any answer would have been ok but nope, I clammed up. I can't go back in time, but now with a head of grey hair and some wisdom wrinkles it is easy, so here goes.

I would like to thank the following folks for doing demos this year.

Dan Merlo- removing tenons , finishing the bottom of a bowl and bird houses.

Kip Lockhart-chucks, tenons and recesses, vacuum chucks and holding things on the lathe.

Kip Lockhart-cross cross segmenting demo.

Kip Lockhart-steady rests, sphere jigs, etc.

Dan Merlo-podlets.

Rick Angus-bowl gouge shootout.

Lynda Zibbideo-gonks.

Dan Merlo-pendants.

Joe Garofalo-natural edge ornament.

A big thanks to Dan Merlo, Charlotte McDonnell, Martin Gerndt and Ken Rowe for allowing us to hold meetings in their shops.

Thank you to Lynda & Chris Zibbideo for hosting the combined picnic with the Connecticut Woodcarvers Assoc.; and the CCW board members VP Kip Lockhart, Treasurer Mark Fields, Secretary and newsletter editor Joanne Mann.

And lastly, all of you members who show up to meetings, volunteer time at pen turning events, clean up at meetings etc. I appreciate your interest in learning, practicing, and passing on the craft of woodturning to all who are interested.

I am thankful I found this club and thankful for the friendships I have made here.

Thank you
John Webber
